UNIVERSITY OF Cincinnati

Building on 100+ years of cooperative education and nationally-ranked programs in art and design, the University of Cincinnati proudly announces the launch of our Fine Arts Co-op program!

Students with skills in 2D, 3D, and electronic media applications will practice work-integrated learning through semester-based, full-time professional experiences and apprenticeships.

Students begin seeking positions in January 2017, and we are excited to build new partnerships!
